Ministry as Improv

a conversation with
Peter Cha & Lee Eclov

Just as great actors and jazz musicians must learn the art of improvisation by mastering disciplined spontaneity, so too great leaders must learn to improvise—blending disciplined planning with the ability to respond with creativity and courage as new opportunities and challenges arise.

This summer, July 20-22, 2010 a small group of young pastors from around the country will come together in Kansas City to focus on the discipline and creativity required to be a young leader in the church today. We invite you to be part of this inaugural gathering of the Young Pastors Network.
